

David Copperfield (Great Stories)

Introduction and Afterword by Joe Wheeler Among the Focus on the Family Great Stories collection, David Copperfield is a perennial favorite. In this story of an innocent orphan making his way in an uncaring world, Dickens draws a gallery of memorable characters into young Davids life, such as jovial Mr. Micawber and the sniveling, sinister Uriah Heep. Joe Wheelers introduction and discussion questions provide additional clarity for todays reader. David Copperfield, with its message of hope amidst harsh reality, has been called the greatest growing-up book ever written.
