

Look Homeward, Angel: a Story of the Buried Life

The stunning, classic coming-of-age novel written by one of Americas foremost Southern writers A legendary author on par with William Faulkner and Flannery OConnor, Thomas Wolfe published Look Homeward, Angel, his first novel, about a young mans burning desire to leave his small town and tumultuous family in search of a better life, in 1929. It gave the world proof of his genius and launched a powerful legacy. The novel follows the trajectory of Eugene Gant, a brilliant and restless young man whose wanderlust and passion shape his adolescent years in rural North Carolina. Wolfe said that Look Homeward, Angel is a book made out of my life, and his largely autobiographical story about the quest for a greater intellectual life has resonated with and influenced generations of readers, including some of todays most important novelists. Rich with lyrical prose and vivid characterizations, this twentieth-century American classic will capture the hearts and imaginations of every reader.
