

Northbridge Rectory

As the war continues, life in Northbridge sees changes. Mrs Villars, the Rectors wife, finds the attentions of Lieutenant Holden of the Barsestshires, who is billeted with her, quite exhausting. The middle-aged ladies and gentlemen who undertake roof-spotting from the church tower are more concerned with their own daily life than with parachutists. There is also the triangle of Mr Downing, his redoubtable hostess Miss Pemberton and the hospitable Mrs Turner at the Hollies, together with a chorus of officers billeted at the Rectory, ladies with violent leanings to High or Broad church, and other village characters.
